

The Nashville Jewish Film Festival Announces
3rd Annual Kathryn H. Gutow Student Film Competition

Submission Guidelines

*Finalists will be chosen to be screened
at the 7th Annual Nashville Jewish Film Festival – November 3 – 8, 2007*

The Nashville Jewish Film Festival (www.nashvillejff.org) is proud to announce the 3rd Annual Kathryn H. Gutow Student Film Competition. Named in memory of the festival's co-founder, the competition features student films from across the nation. Student Filmmakers will be eligible for a Cash Prize of $1,000, made possible by the Kathryn H. Gutow Fund for Jewish Arts and Culture and Creative Artists Agency. The winning film will be screened at the Nashville Film Festival in April of 2008.

Deadline: Film submissions must be postmarked no later than Wednesday, September 26, 2007.

Entry Fee: $18* Please make checks payable to The Temple, NJFF

Submission fee of $18 is for the filmmaker's first film submitted to the 2007 competition. Filmmakers may submit additional eligible films to the competition at no charge if they are sent (2 copies of each submittal) in the same package.

 The Nashville Film Festival seeks the best Student Films with Jewish Content or theme. Please contact us if the entry fee would deter your submission and special arrangements may be possible.*

Requirements:

- * Under 30 minutes in length
- * Jewish theme or content
- * Only films made after September 2004 are eligible

Materials:

- * Two (2) copies of screener in VHS-NTSC, or DVD
- * Film Synopsis
- * Film Information:
 1. Country of origin
 2. Language(s) and/or subtitles
 3. Screening formats available
 4. Filmmaker's resume
 5. Copy of student I.D. or letter from supervising professor verifying film was made while a student

Label on your screener must include film title, director's name, shipper's name (if different from director), shipper's address, year film was completed, length of film, and whether color or black and white.
