It's "What's Next?" Season

"What's next?" That is the question for us Jews in this season: historically, communally, and personally.

We are approaching the end of another year-long journey through the Torah, and we read of our ancestors preparing to end their wilderness wanderings, and enter the Promised Land. A new era is set to begin, and under new management, as Moses prepares Joshua to lead.

We, through our ancestors, stood at the banks of the Jordan River and wondered: Were we ready to build and maintain our own society? What lessons would we need to remember? What kind of society did our emerging Judaism demand that we create? What values and responsibilities would we need to uphold? Moses instructs Joshua and all the people, "chazak v'ematz – be strong and courageous," assuring them that Judaism's teachings would guide us in building the world we dreamed of, if we would learn and do them.

For our congregation, we begin a new school year and program year filled with new opportunities. New groups like our 50's & 60's social club and the Temple Chai Society (65+), Temple Together (35-50) and Next Dor Young Adults, our Temple Tribes, and more to help us connect through interests or age cohorts. The new year will include a slate of new learning opportunities for all ages – chances to connect with each other and with our Jewish selves.

And for each of us, individually, the upcoming high holidays bring with them, once again, the chance to decide who we will be; how we will be as we face what comes, and as we live. What will we bring with us into the year ahead? What do we wish to leave behind? What do we hope to acquire or change? How will we do better and be better?

In this moment, there is so much on the horizon. Some of what is coming is for us to face or embrace, to experience. Some of what is to come is unknown and it is for us to create. Chazak v'ematz – may we be strong and courageous as we face our tomorrows with loving thoughtfulness, kindness, and joy. Here's to the part we each can play as we experience, enjoy, and create what's next!

A Message from The Temple's President

Another Way To be Together

Temple presidents receive feedback from members, which I welcome. It shows that our members truly care about our wonderful Temple and the importance it places in their lives. One such request that I have had the pleasure of focusing on is to have 'things' for 'our' age group.

It is with great joy that I can proudly say that our Temple now has age level activities for virtually all ages!

- ♦ Next Dor Young Professionals – Ages 22 to 35 – chaired by Dina Barabash
- ♦ Temple Together – Ages 35 to 50 – also chaired by Dina Barabash
- ♦ 50's 60's Social Club – Ages 50 to 69 – chaired by Diane Beck and Beth Esch
- ♦ Temple Chai Society – Ages 65+ – chaired by Larry Goldberg

Judy Lefkowitz

How fortunate we are to have these groups and their chairs for our Temple family! Below are just a few examples during the past year where these groups have socialized, learned or volunteered together.

Next Dor Young Professionals have Torah on Tap events where they enjoy a beer while asking our rabbis questions. They've networked with professional mentors, collaborated with Now Gen, Jewish Federation's young professional's group, held a pot luck picnic in the park.

Temple Together has volunteered at the Nashville Diaper Connection, held a progressive dinner, learned about Diskin Cider, and attended a Bourbon tasting with Rabbi Shulman.

50's 60's Social Club just began in July and held its first event – a mural tour of Nashville - that was a smashing success! Great fun was had by all and much more is being planned.

Temple Chai Society, our newest group, just held its first event – a fun evening of food and a movie at The Temple with over 100 people attending! Ideas are in the works for many more get-togethers for this group geared towards those 65 and up.

I want our Temple to be a special place for everyone and for everyone to feel included. Whether you are a preschool family attending a family play date, a religious school family attending a family program, a young adult or 100, The Temple, has something to bring you and your peers together. I hope you'll take advantage of these many opportunities.

The age level opportunities are just another of the ways our Temple has something for everyone. As we soon start the New Year, I proudly say that our Temple family is one community. As our wonderful Temple continues to expand its embrace, I hope you will do the same with those in your extended family.

L' Shana Tova!

Our Selichot Program Sept. 9, 7:00 PM

We will be joined by Rabbi Dan Horwitz,
Jewish Federation of Greater Nashville, CEO

We'll learn from him and share in a brief service of Selichot, followed by a dessert reception.

Important Information about Celebrating the High Holy Days at The Temple

Health, Safety, Parking & Security Guidelines

Health

We appreciate that there are members of our community who are immuno-compromised or for other reasons feel more comfortable wearing a mask when attending in-person events.

If you are not feeling well, please stay home and join our services online. Your health and that of our whole community is our priority.

For Your Comfort

The temperature can fluctuate during services. We recommend you bring a wrap or other garment to ensure you're comfortable throughout services.

The Temple provides a quiet room, gender-neutral bathrooms, and a new mother room to meet the diverse needs of our community. The Temple is committed to including all members and service attendees throughout the High Holy Day season (and throughout the year), and will offer the following accommodations for anyone attending services/programs; large Print Prayer Books, Hebrew/ English/Transliteration prayer books, hearing devices, noise cancelling headphones, fidgets at entrance to Sanctuary, and elevator access to lower level of building. Should you require any further accommodation, please reach out to Sheri Rosenberg, Director of Membership & Inclusion (sheri@templenashville.org).

Security

Each year, congregants for High Holy Day services are greeted at The Temple by uniformed officers and professional parking attendants. Security this year will be provided through a combined effort of public and private personnel who are familiar with our Temple buildings and grounds.

Parking

Please: Drive Slowly | Do Not Park on the Grass | Carpool | Follow Directions

1. Leave for services earlier than usual in order to arrive in advance of service time.
2. If you park at the Belle Meade Plantation, we ask that you enter by way of The Temple parking lot but exit only from their exit on Leake Avenue following services.
3. The Temple driveway will be one way during our largest services. Please follow the posted signs that will direct you around the building. The traffic controllers will direct you as to where and how to park and exit. Please do not try to back into parking spaces as this causes traffic to back up. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated!
4. Additional handicap parking will be available close to the building. Look for signs.
5. Please remember no parking is allowed on Bellevue Drive W. and Bellevue Drive S. Over the past few years, the Belle Meade Police Department has towed cars. BE WARNED! We cannot interrupt services to announce imminent towing.

The Temple Preschool will offer babysitting for children ages 0-5 of families attending the following services:

Rosh Hashanah Morning Services on Saturday, September 16

Yom Kippur Morning Services on Monday, September 25

Parents must remain in the building during services at The Temple.

For safety and security purposes, online registration is required. Space is limited.

Drop off begins 30 minutes before the service and pick up is at the conclusion of the service.

You can register and pay for your children online by going to TheTempleHub.org.

The fee is $20 per child, per holiday.

Please RSVP by September 8 for Rosh Hashanah and by September 18 for Yom Kippur.

After you register, you'll receive detailed instructions about what to bring, etc.

Questions? Please contact the Preschool by phone (615-356-8009) or by email at preschool@templenashville.org.

Our goal is to provide a safe, nurturing and well organized environment for your children while they are in our care.

High Holy Day Youth Programs

The Temple's Youth Programs are held simultaneously with our Rosh Hashanah Morning Service, 10:15 AM-12:30 PM and Yom Kippur Morning Service, 10:15 AM-12:30 PM.

These programs are open to all Temple children, kindergarten through sixth grade.

For safety and security purposes, online registration is required. Space is limited.

Drop off begins 30 minutes before the service and pick up is at the conclusion of the service.

You can register and pay for your children online by going to TheTempleHub.org.

The fee is $20 per child and includes a talented staff, creative programming, and snacks.

Children will be grouped by age/grade and will participate in interactive, age-appropriate, creative experiences for the High Holy Days.

Some activities will include:

- Sing songs
- Create arts and crafts projects
- Taste some delicious foods
- Experience the themes of the High Holy Days through prayer
- Hear the sound of the shofar
- Learn new rituals from around the Jewish world

Ushers Needed for High Holy Days Services

We are looking for members of the congregation to assist as Ushers for our High Holy Days. Ushers help us create a warm and inviting space for all members. Each year, our Ushers contribute to our High Holy Day services by creating a welcoming atmosphere and assisting members in (literally) finding their place in our community. If you are interested or want more information about the role of service Ushers, please contact Mark Shepard at 615-352-7620, ext. 235.

High Holy Day Services by Computer or Phone

Go to thetemplehub.org/hhd to stream the live services using a desktop computer, laptop computer, tablet, cellular phone, or some smart TVs. Internet connection is required. The Temple & Second Harvest Food Bank Annual High Holidays Food Drive L'Shana Tovah! The Temple has partnered with Second Harvest Food Bank in support of their mission to feed hungry people and work to solve hunger issues across Middle Tennessee.

Since the pandemic, 1 in 8 people in our community are hungry, and your donations are greatly appreciated to help fill this need. There are three ways you can donate:

1. Take a bag on Rosh Hashanah, fill it up, and bring it to The Temple on Yom Kippur. Leave your bag by your car so that the shuttle drivers can bring it to the truck. The most-needed items are canned soups, canned fruits and vegetables, cereals, pea nut butter, rice, pasta, and other non-perishable foods. No glass containers or expired items, please.
2. Write a check to Second Harvest Food Bank and bring or mail it to: The Temple, Attn: Food Drive, 5015 Harding Pike, Nashville, TN 37205
3. Donate online from your computer or mobile device at the following link: <http://shfbmt.convio.net/goto/Temple2023>
4. Every dollar you donate provides four meals for hungry children, families, and seniors in our community.

Temple Volunteer Spotlight

Judy Morris

Judy Morris has been involved at The Temple for many years. She is an incredible volunteer for our Temple Gift Shop helping every Friday night following services.

1. How long have you been a member of the Temple? I came to Nashville in 1990/ 1991, and started attending services right away. I became a member and started attending Chevrah Torah weekly (due to Ida Alexander who volunteered at TN School for the Blind where I worked).

Before I came to Nashville, I invited myself to Indianapolis to visit my younger sister. My parents would be attending the URJ Midwest Biennial there that weekend. My mother gave up her Saturday lunch ticket so I could attend with my father and meet some people from Nashville.

2. What volunteer work do you do for the Temple? Currently I volunteer in the gift shop and participate in the Social Action, Social Justice, and Being Green Committees. Previously I have participated on the Adult Education, Worship/Music, and the Caring and Concern committees.

3. Why do you enjoy volunteering for the Temple? They are all important activities of the Temple. I am shy and actively participating in Temple activities is a good way to meet people. At the biennial I attended prior to coming to Nashville, I attended a session where it was asked, "when do you feel most Jewish?" My immediate response was "when I am with my family." When I came to Nashville, I had no family here. Volunteering and attending services, adult education and other activities has made The Temple my second family.

4. Favorite Jewish Holiday? High Holidays and Passover because I continue to celebrate them with immediate family.

5. Favorite Jewish Food? Schnecken (High Holidays) and Passover sponge cake (my mother's recipe adapted from Settlement House cookbook)

6. Favorite Hobbies? Reading, crocheting, collecting kaleidoscopes

7. Favorite thing to do or eat in Nashville? I like to eat or explore new places and new foods.

SOCIAL ACTION

Social Action Spotlight

Each month the Social Action Committee will highlight an organization that receives funds through the Temple's Social Action Allocations. This issue's spotlight is Second Harvest Food Bank and Urban Housing Solutions.

Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle Tennessee opened its doors in 1978. Its mission was, and is, to establish a central distribution center for companies, groups, and individuals who wanted to help provide food for people facing hunger and to work together to find solutions for the problem of hunger, which they do through their huge warehouse and distribution center on Great Circle Road. Second Harvest serves 46 counties in Middle and West Tennessee by distributing over 41 million pounds of food and over 11 million pounds of fresh produce per year.

1 in 8 people in Middle Tennessee is at risk of hunger.

96 cents of every dollar donated goes directly to various feeding endeavors. The Backpack Program provides a backpack filled with easy-to-prepare food for children on weekends and during school breaks. Through its Grocery Rescue Program, Second Harvest rescues, sorts, and distributes frozen meat, dairy products, produce, and dry goods from over 300 grocery stores and food donors. Temple volunteers have participated in filling backpacks and sorting groceries, which is a lot of fun!

Other programs offered by Second Harvest include the Emergency Food Box program, Farm to Families, Mobile Pantries, school-based pantries, and the Summer Food Service Program which provides breakfasts and lunches when school is not in session.

The Temple will again partner with Second Harvest to collect donations on Yom Kippur, September 25, to feed hungry people in our community.

Urban Housing Solutions

The Council of Community Services found a serious shortage of affordable housing, and, as a result, Urban Housing Solutions (UHS) was created in 1991. From the outset, the goal of UHS has been to rehab existing properties and develop new ones into rental units for the disabled, the elderly and the working poor. In the 32 years since its founding, it has grown from one complex containing 160 units to 25 complexes with over 2500 units.

Along the way, it has become apparent, that for people of limited means, housing presents only one of many issues they face. Health care, food, clothing, transportation and even entertainment (all of which we take for granted) present huge challenges to these citizens. In 2008, member Alan Mazer, started a program in which the Temple, along with various schools, churches and civic organizations would prepare and serve dinner to UHS residents on the last weekend of each month.

The goal was simple. People who are on subsidized food grants/food stamps, often run out of their benefits at the end of the month and are hungry. It seems only right that provision should be made to feed them. This project was formed to cook/deliver meals for the residents. It bring volunteers and residents together to mingle and learn from each other. Finally, these dinners create events, something for residents to anticipate, which is something all of us need.

A variety of age groups at the Temple participate regularly in this program in a variety of ways. We have menu planners, cooks, bakers, servers and shoppers. Somehow, regardless of who is doing the work, the result is always the same – a good meal and a festive event that benefit residents and volunteers alike.

Blossoming Creativity: The Flower City Art Show

In the heart of our preschool community, art plays a significant role in providing children opportunities to explore ideas and ways of expressing themselves. This year, an extraordinary event arose from the collaboration of a toddler and a preschool classroom as they encountered flowers in new and interesting ways together. The Flower City Art Show (held in the last weeks of the 2022-2023 school year) was a vibrant celebration of youthful creativity, where tiny hands and big imaginations came together to create a kaleidoscope of floral exploration. This enchanting event not only showcased the boundless potential of young minds but also helps cultivate a love for art that lasts a lifetime.

At the core of Flower City is the belief that every child is an artist. The art show served as a canvas for nurturing and showcasing the budding talents of these young creators. Guided by patient and dedicated educators in both the Neshamah and Shalom classrooms, the children were (and continue to be) encouraged to explore various art forms, from finger painting and collages to assemblage and mixed media projects. The show is a culmination of their journey through artistic discovery, a testament to their growth and development.

Flower City not only provided a platform for artistic expression but also fostered the development of essential life skills. Through art, children learn to communicate their emotions, thoughts, and ideas. The show became a showcase of their emotional journey, with each piece reflecting a unique facet of their personalities. This process of self-expression bolsters their confidence, teaching them to share their voices with the world.

The Flower City Art Show was not they've nurtured. The art show served as a reminder of the power of unity and shared experiences in building a strong foundation for future generations.

True to its name, Flower City celebrated the beauty of nature through the eyes of toddlers and preschoolers. The art pieces featured vibrant flowers, whimsical buildings, and lush landscapes. This connection with nature instills a sense of wonder and appreciation for the world around them. It encourages children to explore the magic of the outdoors and embrace the beauty that exists in the simplest of things.

Beyond the delightful colors and imaginative forms, the Flower City Preschool Art Show planted a seed for lifelong learning. It ignited a spark of creativity that carries into the children's educational journey, enhancing problem-solving skills, critical thinking, and innovation. The confidence gained from their artistic achievements empowers them to tackle challenges with enthusiasm and an open mind.

The Flower City Art Show is a blooming testament to the extraordinary potential of young minds and the power of art in shaping their development. This year's exhibit captured the essence of childhood wonder, creativity, and expression. Flower City was not just an event; it was a gateway to a world where imagination knows no limits and where the beauty of art blossoms in the hearts of our youngest creators.

just an event for the students; it was an occasion that brought families, teachers, and the community together. Parents marveled at the boundless creativity displayed by their little ones, while the educators beamed with pride, witnessing the growth of the children

Conversations and Culinary Connections:

Connecting Interfaith Couples...New Cohort Starting in Fall!

Food brings people together...Holidays bring people together...combine them together to make a meaningful program!

As a congregation, it is The Temple's goal to create an inclusive and educational environment while also helping to create community. Through a generous grant from The Jewish Federation of Greater Nashville, The Temple brings together interfaith couples to celebrate and discuss both Jewish and Christian holidays. Through this initiative, young couples are given the chance to learn more about holiday traditions, as well as the opportunity to share their personal experiences and customs. Food being a connector and bringing people together, quality and deep conversation has further enhanced the atmosphere of the program. Married, engaged, and dating couples are able to join in on Dinners over the past year. They were fun but also meaningful. Connecting with other couples who have the same conversations and run into the same issues was incredible. It made me feel so seen and welcomed by the community to know that my religious background and experiences are also celebrated.

We are looking forward for our third year with new and exciting elements to enhance the experience. If you are interested in being part of the 2023-2024 cohort of Conversations and Culinary Connections session, please reach out to Sheri Rosenberg (sheri@templenashville.org).

this meaningful experience. From Sukkot to Christmas to Tu B'Shevat, quality discussions and sharing about your own relationship is always on the menu. We end the year by cooking an Israeli themed dinner at The Temple and discussing the couple's relationship with Israel as an interfaith couple.

Ross Schneiderman shares "The food was great, but the company was even better. Having just moved to Nashville a little over two years ago during COVID, the interfaith dinners really helped me (and my wife) find a sense of community here."

This program has been occurring since 2021, with two cohorts that have completed the year of dinner programs. Last month, there was a meet up for the two previous cohorts to meet and connect with each other. Participant Kealy Moriarty says "I loved the Interfaith

Shabbat service and Oneg to honor
Mitzie Russell's service to The Temple

We are so pleased to honor Mitzie Russell at Friday night services on Oct. 27th. From her first day at Temple in 1996 until the present, Mitzie has worked tirelessly to make our congregation the best it can be. She has served in almost every administrative position and presently works part-time on special projects and the Cemetery. Please come Friday, October 27 as we show our gratitude for all she has done for our Temple family.
